BEVERAGE LIST

WELCOME TO SOFIA'S

Our coastal Italian menu has something for every occasion and is all about enjoying simple and delicious food with your favourite people.

We combine Italian flavours and techniques, using the best imported and Australian ingredients. It is with this in mind that we have curated our beverage list.

We have carefully considered each and every wine and spirit in this list, working with our team of suppliers to bring you some of the finest Italian wines. In addition to the Italian selection we have gathered for you to enjoy, we have collected some of the most iconic Australian wines, as well as some lesser known gems.

As a small, family owned business, we believe it is important to support other small businesses across Australia. The vast majority of wines we have sourced come from family owned wineries.

Finally, we believe a truly great culinary experience comes from exploration and exiting your comfort zone. We encourage you to ask questions, try new things, and hopefully, find your new favourite delight with us.

ITALIAN SPARKLING

As the creators of the Charmat Method, Italy is blessed with a wide variety of fresh and fruitful sparkling wines. Add to these, the complex and robust sparkling reds from Lambrusco, and the decadent Method Traditional wines of Franciacorta & Alta Langa then, Italy really does have you covered.

CHAMPAGNE

Champagne has long been regarded as the pinnacle of sparkling wines. Initially "discovered" - somewhat inadvertently - it was once referred to as "the devil's wine," as the presence of bubbles was considered a flaw. Fortunately, this perception has evolved over time, and the art of Champagne production has been meticulously refined, resulting in some of the most exquisite and esteemed wines in the world.

While Champagne is often associated with celebrations, we at Sofia's believe that this does not fully capture its remarkable qualities. We wholeheartedly encourage you to enjoy Champagne at any occasion

ITALIAN WHITE WINES

Located near Verona is Soave, the wines from here are made from the grape Garganega. The wines are light and textured, the better examples offering a generous oiliness on the palate.

The three regions synonymous with Pinot Grigio. Alto Adige and Friuli are cooler and produces high quality wines with excellent fresh acidity.

Marche's best known wine is Pecorino. Named after the sheep, it was said that the pecorino grapes were a favourite of theirs due to its early ripening.

Home to great Vermentino, often carries a saline note and pairs wonderfully with seafood.

WINE BY FARR

Situated in the picturesque Moorabool Valley between Geelong and Ballarat, The Farr Estate has been crafting remarkable wines since Gary and Nick Farr acquired the original vineyard in 1994. They have earned a reputation for producing precise and expressive wines that are highly anticipated each year. At Sofia's, we have a particular fondness for their Chardonnays, which have truly captured our hearts. We set aside a select few bottles each year to carefully cellar, and we look forward to witnessing their evolution for everyone to enjoy in the years to come.

ITALIAN RED WINES

Piedmonte is home to some of the most food friendly wines Italy has to offer. With Nebbiolo wines such as Barbaresco or the King of Wines Barolo, Piedmonte is a Mecca for wine lovers all over the world.

The region of Valpolicella is special indeed, creating a fantastic array of wines from a blend of grape varieties. By utilizing the Appassimento technique the typically light and fragrant wines can transform into something rich and decadent.

Possibly the best known Italian region is Tuscany. Home to the Sangiovese grape found in Chianti. Within Tuscany there is the region of Bolgheri that is responsible to the Italian Wine rebellion and the production of the so called Super Tuscan.

Puglia is known for its fruit forward reds due to its warm dry climate. It is home to the Primitivo Grape that is loved for its dark fruit and ripe tannins

Italy's warmest region, Sicily specialises in varieties almost exclusively grown on the Island. Neroello Mascalese found in Mt Etna red wines maintains its bright fruit and acidity despite the heat and offers drinkers light and fragrant wine that is suited to so many Italian dishes.

SASSICAIA - THE ORIGINAL SUPER TUSCAN

Sassicaia was conceived by Marchese Mario Incisa della Rocchetta, who planted Cabernet Sauvignon at the Tenuta San Guido estate in 1944. Growing up in a noble Italian family, he developed an appreciation for the great wines of Bordeaux and aimed to create a wine of similar style and quality for his personal enjoyment. The early vintages were modest until 1968, when, with the assistance of winemaker Giacomo Tachis, they produced the first vintage deemed ready for commercial release.

Initially met with skepticism from traditional Italianists, Sassicaia ultimately gained international acclaim, leading to the establishment of the Super Tuscan movement and earning its own DOC in 1994.

AUSTRALIAN "ITALIAN" VARIETALS

Australia produces wines from a large array of different varietals, but it is the Italian grape varieties that have really thrived. In almost every region across Australia, you will find native Italian varieties, all producing fantastic quality wines with a distinctly "Aussie" personality

"Dan Berrigan risked everything after he fell in love with a vineyard in the Adelaide Hills. After selling his house to fund the sale, and living in a caravan at the vineyard for a year, it is safe to say Dan's risk paid off. This Sangiovese has received rave reviews and rightly so; rich and powerful fruit, coupled with dried herbs makes this a serious "Sango" indeed.

LANGMEIL WINERY

Langmeil is a blend of Barossa's cultural beginnings and a family's modern commitment to world-class, old-vine winemaking. The trading village of Langmeil (where the winery is now situated) was established in 1842, and is home to what they believe to be the oldest Shiraz Vines in the world, planted in 1843. This vine still produces fruit today for the wineries wine The Freedom.

HENSCHKE

One of Australia's oldest family-owned & run wineries; Henschke has been making wine for over 150 years. Fourth generation Cyril first produced the iconic Hill of Grace in 1958; still today the wine is produced using a selection of grapes from the now over 160 year old vines, as well as a selection of other prized parcels. The family is still going strong with Stephen & Prue continuing to produce wines that are celebrated all over the world.
